Located in one of the most established areas of Los Boliches, this renovated property is just 1 minute from the train station, 3 minutes from the beach and next to the Recinto Ferial. Spacious and bright with a great layout. The living-dining room incorporates a designer open-plan kitchen, equipped with a granite island. This space leads to a large terrace, ideal for creating an adjoining chill-out area. The property has three exterior bedrooms, two of which have their own terrace, and two fully renovated bathrooms with shower trays. It also has a separate laundry room, fitted wardrobes and air conditioning. The surrounding area offers supermarkets, schools, parks, shops and all daily amenities within walking distance. The building has communal parking. An ideal option for those looking for space, comfort and excellent connections to all everyday amenities. Translated with DeepL.com (free version)
