Bright Apartment in Calahonda Located in a quiet residential area of Calahonda, this second-floor apartment is served by an elevator. Its abundant natural light creates a pleasant sense of spaciousness and comfort throughout the day. The apartment features two large bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering a comfortable layout for both a family and for hosting guests. Additionally, it offers the possibility of adapting the space to create a third bedroom, depending on the owner's needs. The living room opens onto a private terrace, perfect for having breakfast outdoors, relaxing, or enjoying the Costa del Sol climate. The property also includes a parking space, a practical bonus for everyday life. The complex features a communal pool and gardens, set in a well-maintained and peaceful environment. Thanks to its location, natural light, and flexible layout, this apartment is an excellent choice as a primary residence, second home, or investment property near the beach.
