Location: Casa Banderas is a newly built complex located just above LIDL for those of you who know La Cala and it is about 1.5km to walk to the beach and into the heart of La Cala de Mijas. La Cala de Mijas is the heart of Mijas Costa and still maintains its Andalucian seaside village atmosphere. From being a tiny fishing village originally, its population has increased. There are schools, a health centre, public library, post office, shops and cultural centre, as well as many excellent bars and restaurants and wide sandy beach which is also blue-flagged and quality marked for the clear water, fine sand and other nearby services. The area around the complex Casa Banderas is quiet but at the same time near to life, restaurants, beach and activities. Casa Banderas is a new, modern complex with 24hrs security. Close to the complex, you have the grocery store LIDL, the Marketplace and a large number of restaurants from all corner of the world. There is a very popular street market ('el barratillo') every Wednesday and Saturday from around 09:00 - 14:30. The market stalls offer everything from fresh fruit and vegetables to local crafts, clothes, ceramics and pottery, flowers and plants, and lots more. Saturday nights in the hot summer months of July and August are magical in La Cala. The promenade becomes a venue for classical music and flamenco dancing. With the outline of the old 16th-century watchtower of Torre Vieja as a backdrop, and moon reflecting down on the expanse of sea, the village celebrates a season of Noches de Luna y Playa (Nights of Moon and Beach). A coastal boardwalk running 6km west to Cabopino port. You can easily get around by foot and by local busses, a car is not needed, but many choose to have it as it is an excellent way to discover Costa del Sol and Andalucia.
